

AGENDA

Livestock Markets, Animal Source Foods and Human Nutrition: *Considering Tensions, Maximizing Impact and Avoiding Harm

October 17th, 2016

National Council of Farmer Cooperatives,
50 F Street, NW, Room 1C (lower level) Washington DC

To register for webinar access click HERE.

Time	Session – Talk Title	Speaker / Facilitator
8:30 - 9:00	Arrival and Registration
9:00 - 9:15	Event Opening and Welcome	Jon Halverson Vice President Land O'Lakes International Development
9:15-10:15	SESSION I: Setting the Stage - Livestock Pathways, Animal Source Foods and Human Nutrition	Moderator: Carmen Jaquez Practice Area Manager Dairy, Livestock & Environment Land O'Lakes International Development
	Wealth, health and culture: Complementarity and competition in livestock pathways to meeting demand for Animal Source Foods (20 min)	Shirley Tarawali, PhD Assistant Director General ILRI
	Animal source foods and human nutrition and the first 1000 days (20 min) remote presentation	Lora Iannotti, PhD Assistant Professor Washington University
	Q&A and Discussion (20 min)
10:15-10:45	Tea / Coffee Break
10:45-12:15	SESSION II: Experiences and Learnings from the Field; Assessing Program Approaches and Outcomes	Moderator: Carmen Jaquez Land O'Lakes International Development
	Demystifying the pathways of impact of a livestock transfer program on household resilience & food security in Malawi (15 min)	Jennifer Lane, DVM, MPH Animal Health & Livelihoods Advisor Land O'Lakes International Development

Time	Session – Talk Title	Speaker / Facilitator
	Increasing animal protein intake through livestock distributions in emergencies: Lessons from the Niger crisis (15 min)	Zebiba Kassie, MPH Food Security Intern Mercy Corps
	Herding livestock programs toward nutrition: A critical analysis with a focus on Rwanda’s Feed the Future dairy program (15 min)	Kate McMahon, MPH Independent Consultant Center for Strategic International Studies
	Livestock Asset Transfers: Lessons and Perspectives from Senegal’s Yaajeende Food Security program (15 min)	Todd Crosby Senior Technical Director NCBA CLUSA
	Q&A and Discussion (30 min)
12:15-1:30	Lunch
1:30-2:30	Complexities of Animal Source Foods: Food Safety, Markets and Measurement of Impact	Moderator: Jennifer Lane, DVM, MPH Land O’Lakes International Development
	Access to safe and nutritious animal source foods (20 min)	Delia Grace, DVM, PhD Program Manager Food Safety Zoonosis, ILRI
	Evaluating livestock programs for nutrition impact: challenges, methods and opportunities (20 min)	Jef Leroy, PhD Senior Research Fellow, IFPRI
	Q&A and Discussion (20 min)
2:30-3:00	Tea / Coffee Break
3:00-4:30	Session IV: Strengthening the connection between and measurement of livestock production, market development and rural household nutrition: A facilitated group discussion	Moderators: Jim Yazman, PhD Livestock Sciences Specialist Bureau of Food Security/ USAID Carmen Jaquez Land O’Lakes International Development
4:30-5:00	Conclusion &amp; Announcements	Carmen Jaquez Land O’Lakes International Development

